Important Changes from the Education Committee
The Education Committee has made three key changes to the certification levels. First, they changed from four to five certification levels. Second, there will be revisions at Level 2 and 3 written exams. Finally, the names of the four phases have been revised to be more humanistic. Read the full announcement about each of these changes.

International EVA Meeting in Speyer, Germany
Validation teachers from different European countries, as well as from Israel, met for their annual meeting in Germany from October 16-19, 2019. The main topic was “Preserving dignity, person-oriented accompaniment of people with dementia in care and nursing.” There were 250 participants. Read the full summary of this important meeting.

Naomi Feil Interview Part 2
In part 2 of the Naomi Feil interview series, she talks about what Ed was like to work with and the impact he had on spreading Validation throughout the world. Part 2 will be posted in March 2020 and will be about Naomi’s hopes and dreams for Validation to be taken around the globe using a Validation technique. Watch the Full Interview.

Dignity to the End
Gunvor Sramek, Austrian Validation Master, writes from her personal experience about how Validation can help maintain dignity when people are in the phase of dying. Her touching speech offers concrete ideas. Read it here.

Internet Supported Validation Worker Course
The VTI in cooperation with Help My Senior will be hosting the Internet Supported Validation Worker Course beginning March 6, 2020 and ending December 11, 2020. The course will be taught in English. There are early-bird discounts for those who register before February 1st. Click here to read more information about the course.

Make a Connection!
- Watch our YouTube Channel
- Visit us on Facebook
- Follow us on Twitter
- Connect with us on LinkedIn
- Visit our Website
- Read our Blog

AVO News
There are many exciting developments to report about the Authorized Validation Organizations (AVOs) around the world! Read about what our AVOs have been doing to develop Validation in their region.

Validation Practitioner Job Opportunity in Ireland
The Irish Hospice Foundation has an opportunity for Validation practitioners to work on a new innovative project. Read the full job announcement.

Internet Supported Validation Worker Course
This course is open to Validation Practitioners who are interested in the Internet Supported Validation Worker Course beginning March 6, 2020 and ending December 11, 2020. The course will be taught in English. There are early-bird discounts for those who register before February 1st. Click here to read more information about the course.

Calendar
Validation Talk and Techniques
Meeting Link: https://zoom.us/j/708819389
Time: 5pm PST/6pm MST/7pm CST/8pm EST
Dates: January 30th, February 27th and March 26th

Important Changes from the Education Committee
The Education Committee has made three key changes to the certification levels. First, they changed from four to five certification levels. Second, there will be revisions at Level 2 and 3 written exams. Finally, the names of the four phases have been revised to be more humanistic. Read the full announcement about each of these changes.

International EVA Meeting in Speyer, Germany
Validation teachers from different European countries, as well as from Israel, met for their annual meeting in Germany from October 16-19, 2019. The main topic was “Preserving dignity, person-oriented accompaniment of people with dementia in care and nursing.” There were 250 participants. Read the full summary of this important meeting.

News from China: AVO, Senior Living L’Amore
Following the Chinese release of a Validation level 3 course, Senior Living L’Amore invited Validation master Yvonne Kuo to be a speaker at a symposium. She spoke about the Validation approach to professional Validation and workshops. She also was a workshop leader with Validation practitioners.

Naomi Feil Interview Part 2
In part 2 of the Naomi Feil interview series, she talks about what Ed was like to work with and the impact he had on spreading Validation throughout the world. Part 2 will be posted in March 2020 and will be about Naomi’s hopes and dreams for Validation to be taken around the globe using a Validation technique. Watch the Full Interview.

Dignity to the End
Gunvor Sramek, Austrian Validation Master, writes from her personal experience about how Validation can help maintain dignity when people are in the phase of dying. Her touching speech offers concrete ideas. Read it here.

Internet Supported Validation Worker Course
The VTI in cooperation with Help My Senior will be hosting the Internet Supported Validation Worker Course beginning March 6, 2020 and ending December 11, 2020. The course will be taught in English. There are early-bird discounts for those who register before February 1st. Click here to read more information about the course.

Make a Connection!
- Watch our YouTube Channel
- Visit us on Facebook
- Follow us on Twitter
- Connect with us on LinkedIn
- Visit our Website
- Read our Blog

AVO News
There are many exciting developments to report about the Authorized Validation Organizations (AVOs) around the world! Read about what our AVOs have been doing to develop Validation in their region.

Validation Practitioner Job Opportunity in Ireland
The Irish Hospice Foundation has an opportunity for Validation practitioners to work on a new innovative project. Read the full job announcement.

Internet Supported Validation Worker Course
This course is open to Validation Practitioners who are interested in the Internet Supported Validation Worker Course beginning March 6, 2020 and ending December 11, 2020. The course will be taught in English. There are early-bird discounts for those who register before February 1st. Click here to read more information about the course.

Calendar
Validation Talk and Techniques
Meeting Link: https://zoom.us/j/708819389
Time: 5pm PST/6pm MST/7pm CST/8pm EST
Dates: January 30th, February 27th and March 26th

Important Changes from the Education Committee
The Education Committee has made three key changes to the certification levels. First, they changed from four to five certification levels. Second, there will be revisions at Level 2 and 3 written exams. Finally, the names of the four phases have been revised to be more humanistic. Read the full announcement about each of these changes.

International EVA Meeting in Speyer, Germany
Validation teachers from different European countries, as well as from Israel, met for their annual meeting in Germany from October 16-19, 2019. The main topic was “Preserving dignity, person-oriented accompaniment of people with dementia in care and nursing.” There were 250 participants. Read the full summary of this important meeting.

News from China: AVO, Senior Living L’Amore
Following the Chinese release of a Validation level 3 course, Senior Living L’Amore invited Validation master Yvonne Kuo to be a speaker at a symposium. She spoke about the Validation approach to professional Validation and workshops. She also was a workshop leader with Validation practitioners.

Naomi Feil Interview Part 2
In part 2 of the Naomi Feil interview series, she talks about what Ed was like to work with and the impact he had on spreading Validation throughout the world. Part 2 will be posted in March 2020 and will be about Naomi’s hopes and dreams for Validation to be taken around the globe using a Validation technique. Watch the Full Interview.

Dignity to the End
Gunvor Sramek, Austrian Validation Master, writes from her personal experience about how Validation can help maintain dignity when people are in the phase of dying. Her touching speech offers concrete ideas. Read it here.

Internet Supported Validation Worker Course
The VTI in cooperation with Help My Senior will be hosting the Internet Supported Validation Worker Course beginning March 6, 2020 and ending December 11, 2020. The course will be taught in English. There are early-bird discounts for those who register before February 1st. Click here to read more information about the course.

Make a Connection!
- Watch our YouTube Channel
- Visit us on Facebook
- Follow us on Twitter
- Connect with us on LinkedIn
- Visit our Website
- Read our Blog

AVO News
There are many exciting developments to report about the Authorized Validation Organizations (AVOs) around the world! Read about what our AVOs have been doing to develop Validation in their region.

Validation Practitioner Job Opportunity in Ireland
The Irish Hospice Foundation has an opportunity for Validation practitioners to work on a new innovative project. Read the full job announcement.

Internet Supported Validation Worker Course
This course is open to Validation Practitioners who are interested in the Internet Supported Validation Worker Course beginning March 6, 2020 and ending December 11, 2020. The course will be taught in English. There are early-bird discounts for those who register before February 1st. Click here to read more information about the course.

Calendar
Validation Talk and Techniques
Meeting Link: https://zoom.us/j/708819389
Time: 5pm PST/6pm MST/7pm CST/8pm EST
Dates: January 30th, February 27th and March 26th

Important Changes from the Education Committee
The Education Committee has made three key changes to the certification levels. First, they changed from four to five certification levels. Second, there will be revisions at Level 2 and 3 written exams. Finally, the names of the four phases have been revised to be more humanistic. Read the full announcement about each of these changes.

International EVA Meeting in Speyer, Germany
Validation teachers from different European countries, as well as from Israel, met for their annual meeting in Germany from October 16-19, 2019. The main topic was “Preserving dignity, person-oriented accompaniment of people with dementia in care and nursing.” There were 250 participants. Read the full summary of this important meeting.

News from China: AVO, Senior Living L’Amore
Following the Chinese release of a Validation level 3 course, Senior Living L’Amore invited Validation master Yvonne Kuo to be a speaker at a symposium. She spoke about the Validation approach to professional Validation and workshops. She also was a workshop leader with Validation practitioners.

Naomi Feil Interview Part 2
In part 2 of the Naomi Feil interview series, she talks about what Ed was like to work with and the impact he had on spreading Validation throughout the world. Part 2 will be posted in March 2020 and will be about Naomi’s hopes and dreams for Validation to be taken around the globe using a Validation technique. Watch the Full Interview.

Dignity to the End
Gunvor Sramek, Austrian Validation Master, writes from her personal experience about how Validation can help maintain dignity when people are in the phase of dying. Her touching speech offers concrete ideas. Read it here.

Internet Supported Validation Worker Course
The VTI in cooperation with Help My Senior will be hosting the Internet Supported Validation Worker Course beginning March 6, 2020 and ending December 11, 2020. The course will be taught in English. There are early-bird discounts for those who register before February 1st. Click here to read more information about the course.

Make a Connection!
- Watch our YouTube Channel
- Visit us on Facebook
- Follow us on Twitter
- Connect with us on LinkedIn
- Visit our Website
- Read our Blog