Teaching Validation online, or want to?

Learn how to create a community of inquiry online and effective learning for your audience.

This continuing education program focuses on demonstration, practice and integrating new practices into your skill-set.

Your Facilitator:
Eric Portnoff, has been a Certified Validation Teacher since 2014 and has taught several Validation Worker courses online as well as in China. In the assisted living industry, he has served as an Executive Director, Regional Director, and VP of Memory Care & Resident Programs. He lives in Sacramento with his wife and son and enjoys backpacking, yoga, meditation, and writing.

This 5-part program starts with independent learning from videos and short assignments. This is followed by 4 interactive meetings.

This training will give you:
- pedagogic knowledge specific to online teaching
- creative ways of teaching Validation online with webinars, interactive classes and blended learning
- practice in using various software

The webinars are interactive and require participants to have hi-speed internet, a functioning camera, microphone and speakers. It will be held on Zoom video conferencing.
