Teaching Validation online, or want to?

Learn how to create a community of inquiry online and effective learning for your audience.

This continuing education program focuses on demonstration, practice and integrating new practices into your skill-set.

Your Facilitator:

Nancy Brown, a Certified Validation Teacher since 2018, has assisted with online Validation courses including webinar series for the National Certification Council for Activity Professionals. For over 16 years, she has served as group supervisor in a therapeutic Day Center for persons with cognitive impairment. She is also a PhD candidate in Dementia studies at the University of Edinburgh.

This 5-part program starts with independent learning from videos and short assignments.

This is followed by 4 interactive meetings.

This training will give you:

- pedagogic knowledge specific to online teaching
- creative ways of teaching Validation online with webinars, interactive classes and blended learning
- practice in using various software

The webinars are interactive and require participants to have hi-speed internet, a functioning camera, microphone and speakers. It will be held on Zoom video conferencing.
