

vfvalidation.org

Our tutoring and coaching sessions have been developed as a follow-up to the How To Teach Validation Online course. They take place online through Zoom meetings. Practice-based sessions are led by Certified Validation Teacher, Odile Lavault, who teaches the French edition of the How to Teach Validation Online course.

"Many thanks for your support. I very much appreciate how you paid close attention to my needs. I have already reaped the benefits from your coaching session."

- Coaching in Online Validation Teaching Participant

Odile LaVault, CTRS

Recreation therapist, musician and Validation teacher, Odile Lavault is passionate about communication with seniors living with memory-loss and disorientation.

Odile has worked in short and long-term skilled nursing, acute psychiatric geriatric hospital and home-care. She delivers trainings and individual support to professionals and families through in-person and on-line sessions.

She believes that learner's questions should be heard with empathy and a validating approach.

Tutoring in Online Skills:

- Either one-on-one or small (2-person) classes
- Helps participants deepen skills and confidence in Zoom and Google suite
- Choose topics of interest to you from a menu of options
- 1-hour long session for $70

Learn More and Register Now

Coaching in Online Validation Teaching:

- Get assistance with translating specific Validation exercises to online courses and presentations
- Topics include: Adaptation of Validation teachings online, Construction of sequences, Daylong presentation and Online training modules
- 1-2 hour long individual session for $70/hour

Learn More and Register Now