

This course is ideal for anyone who works directly with older adults, including:

- Activity Providers
- Nursing assistants and care staff
- Adult day centre team members
- Volunteers in long-term care communities

Whether you're brand-new to the field or a seasoned professional, the skills you'll learn are practical, adaptable, and immediately useful in your daily work.

Course Benefits

Validation for Activity Providers is an 11-week online course that helps you build deeper, more meaningful connections with residents—especially those living with cognitive decline.

By the end of the course, you will:

- Enhance communication with older adults in all phases of cognitive change
- Strengthen your ability to connect with older adults on an emotional level
- Use practical Validation techniques to respond compassionately to distressed behavior
- Creatively integrate the Validation Attitude to improve engagement and participation in individual and group activities.

Course Leader

Nancy Brown

Nancy Brown is a Certified Validation Teacher (CVT) with over 20 years of professional experience in dementia and memory care. She specialises in translating the Validation Method into structured, applied communication protocols for frontline practitioners across residential, clinical, and community-based care settings.
